THE NEWS. Gold closed in New York last night

FIFTEEN hundred Baltimore ladies have petitioned the President for the pardon of Jeff Davis.

The buoys of the Atlantic cable seem to be floating around rather loosely in all latitudes.

The New York World of Tuesday two columns of characteristic abuse are appended to the following explicit assertion:

"It is now stated, upon authority, that Mr. Caleb Cushing goes to England as the special agent of Mr. Seward, intrusted with the promotion of the personal views of the latter in the matter of dispute with that country."
